

Benefits at a Glance

With more than 600 member companies, the German Business Travel Association (VDR) is Germany's largest network for business mobility management. Together with its members and partners, the VDR works on solutions to make business travel sustainable, reliable, and safe. In dialogue with business and politics, the association represents the interests of its member companies and advocates for fair framework and competitive conditions. For over 50 years, the VDR has been a reliable partner to commercial enterprises—including SMEs, corporations, organizations, and business mobility providers—and today stands for an innovative and informative "Network for Business Mobility."

Independent Network & Platform

Gain exclusive access to over 600 member companies and benefit from a diverse pool of experts. The included GBTA membership also provides access to an international network.

Events & Exchange

Expand your expertise at conventions, regional conferences, and topic-specific online events, as well as through the exchange of best practices for finding individual solutions.

Committees & Trends

Gain insider knowledge through regular communication on current topics and exclusive industry trends, as well as business travel analysis. The committees also provide a forum for exchange among experts.

Academy & Career

Enhance your expertise with certified seminars and qualifications from the VDR Academy. Young professionals can also benefit from individual support.

Resources & Advice

As a member, take advantage of our free brief consultations with legal and tax experts, as well as the checklists and guidelines developed and tested in practice by our committees.

Special Conditions

Reduce your travel costs with purchasing advantages from industry-relevant providers such as airlines and car rental companies, and benefit from discounts on seminars and events.

Political Advocacy

Help shape the future of the mobility industry and the regulatory environment for business travel with a strong, neutral, and independent voice.
